STUDENT INSTRUCTIONS: PRIOR TO THE CEREMONY

1. APPLY FOR GRADUATION.

Students must apply for graduation through PAWS. The application link is found under the Student tab in PAWS. You will select the term of your graduation, provide the address for your diploma and enter exactly how you would like your name to appear. There will be a one-time charge of $40 per degree.

THE DEADLINE TO APPLY TO GRADUATE IS MARCH 26.

If you have applied to graduate (and will complete degree requirements) in the next term, but meet the eligibility criteria to participate in this term's ceremony, please complete the exceptionality request for your college.

 - Angie Cawthon: 217-581-5221, amcawthon@eiu.edu
- Lumpkin College of Business and Technology
 - go.eiu.edu/lumedu
 - Tiffany Swalls: 217-581-6902, taswalls@eiu.edu

Students may reapply for graduation through PAWS. No additional fee is charged for reapplication.

Reapplication should be done if you need to change your graduate term, the degree or the major you are pursuing, or want to alter the way your name appears or the address your diploma will be sent. Do not reapply just because you want an updated degree checklist; contact your certifying dean's office.

2. ORDER YOUR CAP AND GOWN.

Order your cap and gown online through Herff Jones at go.eiu.edu/HerffJones. Renting a cap and gown signifies your intent to participate in commencement and allows for your involvement. Late charges will apply if ordered after the deadline. Do not order a cap and gown if you have not applied to graduate through PAWS or submitted the exceptionality form to participate.

THE DEADLINE TO ORDER CAP AND GOWNS IS APRIL 4 AT 10:59 P.M. A $20 LATE FEE WILL BE CHARGED AFTER THE DEADLINE.

To order your cap and gown, you will need to know the college you are graduating from, your degree earned, and height, weight and cap size. Instructions on how to find your cap size are available at go.eiu.edu/HerffJonesCap.

Students will have the option to select to pick up their cap and gown during cap and gown pick up on May 5 and 6 in the Lantz Fieldhouse. Or students can select to have their cap and gown shipped home for a $18.10 shipping fee. The shipping fee includes a pre-paid return label ($19.95 shipping fee for late orders).

Please contact Patty Storie at PAStorie@herffjones.com with any questions regarding your cap and gown.

STUDENT INSTRUCTIONS: COMMENCEMENT WEEK

1. TICKET PICK-UP

Each student will be allotted a set number of tickets (TBA) for their ceremony. Graduates do not need a ticket.

Extra tickets will be available on May 6, beginning at 10 A.M. on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Students can pick up their tickets during Ticket Distribution in the Lantz Fieldhouse on May 5 and 6 from 9 A.M. – 5 P.M.

For those graduates not on campus, a request can be made for tickets to be picked up at Will Call on Saturday, May 10 one hour before the ceremony begins. Will Call tickets will be at the information table in the lobby of Groniger Arena.

2. CAP AND GOWN PICK-UP

Cap and gown distribution will be held in the Lantz Fieldhouse on May 5 and 6 from 9 A.M. – 5 P.M. Graduates not on campus can have their regalia shipped to their homes.

3. ACCOMMODATIONS

If you are a graduate with special needs and need accommodation, please contact the Commencement Office (Alumni Services) at commencement@eiu.edu to make arrangements in advance.

STUDENT INSTRUCTIONS: DAY OF THE CEREMONY

1. ARRIVE TO THE STUDENT REC CENTER ONE HOUR BEFORE CEREMONY

The doors will open one hour prior to each ceremony for graduating students. Graduates should arrive dressed in their regalia. Link to a video of how to properly wear regalia below:

BACHELOR'S REGALIA – go.eiu.edu/bachelor

MASTER'S REGALIA – go.eiu.edu/graduate

MASTER'S HOOD – go.eiu.edu/mastershood

Please leave personal items in your vehicle. There will not be a place to store personal belongings.

2. GRADUATES WILL PICK UP THEIR NAME CARDS IN THE REC CENTER.

Each graduate will take their name card with them to receive their diploma cover. This card will be used to read their names as they cross in front of the stage to receive their diploma cover. If the student's name is difficult to pronounce, the announcer will be available to discuss proper pronunciation.

3. GRADUATING WITH DISTINCTION

Participants graduating with distinction will be awarded a medallion that can be picked up in the Lantz Fieldhouse during ticket distribution.

4. GRADUATE SEATING

Graduates will be seated by college. Student seats will be filled in the order they walk.

5. CONFERRING OF DEGREES

Each graduate will have their name announced and will be handed a diploma cover. Actual diplomas will be sent in the mail approximately six weeks after the ceremony.

6. CEREMONIAL RECESSIONAL

Following the ceremony, graduates will be marched off the floor by the platform party and faculty. Please make plans to meet your graduate in the Lantz Fieldhouse.

7. CAP AND GOWN RETURN

The return area will be in the Lantz Fieldhouse immediately following the ceremony. If you had regalia shipped to your home, you can return it with the pre-paid label that came with it.

The tassel and cap included with your regalia is yours to keep.

GRADUATING WITH DISTINCTION

Students graduating with distinction are designated by medallions with corresponding ribbons of gold, white or blue. Undergraduates must have completed 56 hours at EIU to be recognized with distinction.

Summa Cum Laude – Gold

"With Highest Honors" – GPA: 3.90-4.00

Magna Cum Laude – White

"With High Honor" – GPA: 3.80-3.89

Cum Laude – Blue

"With Honor" – GPA 3.65-3.79

Medallions may be picked up during ticket distribution.

HONORS PROGRAM

Eastern's Sandra and Jack Pine Honors College celebrates students who have graduated with University and/or Departmental Honors.

University Honors graduates are distinguished as either University Honors Laureates (with 26 hours of Honors coursework) or Honors Scholars (With 15 hours of Honors coursework).

Departmental Honors Program graduates have typically completed a minimum of 12 hours of coursework in a Departmental Honors Program including a senior thesis.

To be recognized Honors graduates must have a GPA 3.5 or higher.

CORD AND STOLES

Honor cords and stoles are allowed. If you're receiving one from a department or organization, please contact that area to pick it up. The Commencement Office does not supply cords or stoles.

GRADUATE STUDENTS

Graduate students should not wear honor cords. The hood, adorned with the colors of their major, represents their academic accomplishments as recognized by the university. Each graduate student will be hooded on stage.

Graduation honors are not bestowed upon students receiving master's degrees; therefore, graduate degree recipients do not receive or wear honor cords.

CAPS

Messages on or attached to any part of a graduate cap must be appropriate, or they will be asked to be removed.

STUDENT INSTRUCTIONS: AFTER COMMENCEMENT

Congratulations to the newest members of the Eastern Illinois University alumni family, with more than 120,000 strong and growing. GUEST INSTRUCTIONS: DAY OF THE CEREMONY

1. DOORS OPEN ONE HOUR BEFORE CEREMONY

Doors for guests should open one hour before the ceremony begins.

2. SPECIAL NEEDS SEATING

Seating accommodations are available for guests in wheelchairs or who have a difficult time navigating the stairs.

When your graduate picks up their tickets, they need to ask for a special seating stamp. An additional family member will be able to sit with that person to help those in need.

3. PLEASE BE RESPECTFUL

To maintain the dignity and decorum of the commencement ceremony, we ask that everyone remain through the entire ceremony.

4. OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

One photograph will be taken as the graduate reaches the stage and two others after receiving his or her diploma. Proofs and online ordering information will be sent to the graduate within two weeks of the ceremony.

Grad Images is EIU's photography provider. Pre-register at gradimages.com.

5. AFTER THE CEREMONY

Once the ceremony concludes and the graduates have been marched out, guests will be asked to leave the stands while maintaining social distance. Make a plan to meet your graduate at your vehicles or in the Lantz Fieldhouse. There will be no re-entry after the ceremony.

ABOUT THE DIPLOMA

Degrees are awarded once all grades have been turned into the Office of the Registrar. Actual diplomas will be mailed to the address listed on your graduation application approximately six weeks after you graduate.*

Note: Participation in the commencement ceremony does not mean you have completed your degree requirements and graduated. Your graduation is not official until your certifying dean's office has sent notification of completion of all degree requirements to the Registrar's Office and the degree has been posted to your record.

INFORMATION STATED ON DIPLOMA

- Student name
- Degree earned
- Date degree was awarded

DIMENSIONS

- Undergrad degrees are 8" x 10"
- Graduate degrees are 11" x 14"

DIPLOMA FRAMES

Each graduate who participates in commencement will receive a soft cased diploma cover. Order a diploma frame through the Herrf Jones at go.eiu.edu/HerrfJones.

* Please be sure your address is updated with the Office of the Registrar to reflect where you want your diploma sent six weeks after you graduate.

MESSAGE FROM THE EIU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS!

Congratulations to the Spring 2025 EIU Graduates from the EIU Alumni Association Board of Directors!

We are honored to welcome you to the Panther Alumni family. You worked diligently and with dedication to achieve your degree. At EIU, you acquired the knowledge and skills to launch your career or to pursue an advanced degree.

You learned to persevere when unforeseen challenges were presented. And you found lifelong friends and associates among your fellow students and the EIU faculty and staff members. Wherever life takes you, know that Eastern Illinois University will always be a place you can call home. Please stay in touch and visit often.

You will always be a Panther!
