

Love German in high school? Take German WLG 2201G-2202G for gen ed!

German Studies

German. . . more than a language

Intermediate German WLG 2201G-2202G lets you learn about cultures where German is spoken and improve your abilities in written and spoken German as you fulfill a General Education Humanities requirement. Want more? Major, double-major, or minor in German to explore the history, literature, and cultures of German-speaking countries. We will even give you free credit for the German you already know from high school.
